

IS NOT REQUIRED TO PAY LICENSE

Judge Witt Holds That Coal Company Does Interstate Business.

In order to make a test which would operate throughout the State, Judge Witt, of the Hustings Court, yesterday morning instructed the jury to bring a verdict of not guilty in the case against the Chesapeake and Ohio Coal and Coke Company, charging it with doing business without the proper license. Motion was made by Commonwealth's Attorney Folger that the verdict be set aside, but it was overruled. The jury then retired, and the case will go to the Supreme Court.

The coal company is chartered in the State of New Jersey and claims that it is exempt from certain taxes that are required of companies in this State, holding that its business in this city is interstate, being on the commission basis.

CONSCIENCE MONEY

City and State Richer by Belated Honesty

There is a man with a conscience. There is a man with one somewhere in town, but he hasn't mentioned his name or given his address. Nevertheless, he sent $3.10 to Commissioner of the Revenue O. A. Hawkins in the mail yesterday. The sender states that he is a conscience-stricken over having dodged taxes to the city and State, and he sends the city of Richmond $1.65 and the State of Virginia $1.45.

Unfortunately Mr. Hawkins does not receive money. It is his business to assess taxes against people. Captain Frank Cunningham takes the money—or if anybody doesn't want to pay him he can, by having a penalty added, settle with Captain T. C. Wallford. Mr. Hawkins turned over the city's share and had it credited to the conscience fund, the city having no "conscience fund," as has the United States Treasury, not before having had the need of such an account in the administration of Auditor Warren. The State's share of conscience money is the tax on an income of $16.

About Two Hundred Employees of Two Lynchburg Concerns Refuse to Work.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Lynchburg, Va., March 23.—About 200 employees of the Southland factory, of the Craddock-Terry Company, and the Jefferson Street factory, of the George D. Witt Company, struck this morning, leaving their work at 8 o'clock. The strike was in conformity to a resolution adopted by the cutters and stitchers at a meeting which must have been held last night.

The exact number of workers leaving their work could not be secured to-day, but it is understood that the number who quit was considerably less than one-third of the working force of the two factories.

While no statement was given out at the office of the company to-day, it is understood that the work in the factories will not be seriously hindered, as new workers are being employed in the places of the strikers.
